WILL URGE THE LINCOLN WAY

Association Formed in Washington for Purpose of Pushing project.
Receives More Favor than Costly Monument Plan.

This morning's Washington Post
said:
Culmination of the plans to build a road from Washington to Gettysburg, as a memorial to Abraham Lincoln, is now assured. Charles J.
Glidden, aeronaut and globe trotter who has thrice circled the globe in an automobile, yesterday announced the organization of a Lincoln Memorial Road Association.

Previous agitations for the memorial highway have been started from time to time in Washington, and in other cities, but nothing has ever been accomplished. Members of the new organization are convinced they will carry the project through to completion within a short period of time.

Officers chosen for the new association are James T. McCleary, of Minnesota, president; Charles J. Glidden, secretary; Robert A. C. Smith, of New York, treasurer, and Leslie T. Mc-Cleary, of this city, executive secretary.

The association will fight for the passage of the Lefan bill, providing for a splendid road from Washington to Gettysburg along the route traveled by Lincoln when he went to that battled field to deliver his now famous address at the dedication of the cemetery.

It is thought by the promoters that the project will commend itself to more persons than the erection of a costly monument. Practically every citizens' association in the District has endorsed the scheme.

PERSONALS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stock, of Lincoln avenue, a daughter.

There will be an adjourned meeting of the Pennsylvania College Aid Society on Thursday at 3 p. m., in Brua Chapel.

the Lutheran churches in York on Sunday.

Mrs. Charles M. Stock, of Hanover, is spending some time at the home of Judge McClean on York street.

Miss Rose Stock, who has been employed in Florence, South Carolina, is visiting her home on Washington street. Miss Stock will assist Mrs.
D. J. Riele in her millinery business the coming season.

COUNTY WOMAN SHOWS NERVE

Pinned to the street by her heavy wagon which was overturned by a runaway team, Mrs. John Reeser, of Ber-mudian, showed remarkable coolness and nerve Saturday morning in York, when she held on to the lines and prevented her horses from running away.
The accident occurred shortly before noon. Mrs. Reeser was with her husband, who retained produce from door to door. While her husband was delivering some goods, a runaway team dashed into the rear of her wagon, with the result that both the wagons were overturned. Mrs. Reeser was pinned to the ground, and had her left ankle and foot badly sprained and bruised. Several cans of milk that were in the wagon, were spilled. Mr.
Reeser hurried to the scene and removed his wife from under the wagon. She was taken into a store where her injuries were dressed by a physician who was called in. Later she was removed to her home. The farm wagon was slightly damaged, while one of the rods supporting the canopy of the delivery wagon was broken.

the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Albright on Saturday evening. Those

RUNAWAY ON TOWN STREETS

Lawrence Lady Has Ugly Experience with Horse which Takes Fright at Freight Train. Drives between Teams onto Pavement.

Gettysburg was given a runaway sensation this morning when the horse and sleigh of Charles E. Lady, the contractor, dashed up Chambersburg street and through the Square finally ending their flight on the pavement in front of the store of G. W. Weaver and the Hotel Gettysburg.

The horse was driven by Lawrence Lady and with him was his grandfather, Vincent Storm, of York. They were driving on Springs avenue, when the horse took fright at a Reading train which was operating on the Round Top switch. The animal started to run and kept on at a rapid gait notwithstanding young Lady's attempts to stop it. Mr. Storm jumped from the vehicle and was not hurt.

When the sleigh reached the Eagle Hotel the horse had about stopped but suddenly started again, kicking and running full speed. When the Square was reached the boy saw that he was not going to be able to stop the animal, the backing straps having torn from the shafts, and he turned it in towards the pavement. Into a narrow space between wagons and sleighs it went, over the steep gutter on to the pavement where Daniel Starnor, of near town, and several other men stopped the horse.

Fortunately the boy was not hurt but the sleigh was damaged by the horse's kicks, the dashboard being badly broken.

WON AT BASKET BALL

Before a large crowd of spectators the Gettysburg College basketball team defeated Franklin and Marshall in the college gymnasium Saturday evening in a fast and exciting contest by the score of 41 to 21. The game held the interest of the big crowd and it was not until the latter part of the second half that the orange and blue followers saw their quintet gaining a safe lead.

The game opened with a rush and for the greater part of the first half the visitors led. Their passing was accurate and their shooting uncomfortably true for the pleasure of the local adherents. Gettysburg was slow in getting their pace and Franklin and Marshall looked decidedly dangerous though a brace near the end of the period sent Gettysburg ahead and it closed 19 to 16.

In the second half matters were reversed and while the local boys piled up 22 points Franklin and Marshall was fortunate to get 5. Shooting was more accurate and the passing decidedly better.

The game throughout was marked by rapid work and there were few dull periods. The entire Gettysburg team shot and passed well while the feature was Brumbaugh's shooting from fouls, seven points being scored in that way.
Mr. Barnes of York officiated most ac-ceptably. The College Band was on hand and as usual added much to the enjoyment of the spectators.

EDUCATION AND PARCELS POST

Adams County Agricultural Association Takes up Several Questions.
Education Better than a Thousand Dollars.

At a meeting of the Adams County Agricultural Association held in Arendtsville on Saturday, one of the discussions brought out the sentiment on the part of the members of the association that at the age of 21 a college education is of more benefit to a young man than a gift of $1000. Among the other discussions was one on the parcels post and following it resolutions were adopted urging the establishment of a rural parcels post system.
The topics discussed and opinions expressed were all well received.

The first subject was "Can a Farmer sell straw and buy clover seed to sow and keep up the fertility of the soils?" H. M. Keller would prefer to keep the straw to absorb the liquid manure and apply to land to help to put humus in soil and would also sow the clover seed if he would have to borrow the money to buy the seed. He would prefer to grow the clover and also use the straw for manure.

"Which is better for a man of 21 years of age $1000, or a college education?"

C. S. Rice said an education would remain during life while $1000 might not be properly invested and be lost.
It was discussed at length by a number of the members and the general opinion was that a college education would be preferable.

"What breed of horses suits farmers of Adams County?"

Luther Rice said he would prefer to raise a horse for general purposes; would not try to raise a fast or sporting horse, or not a heavy draught horse for farm purposes, but medium weight with action and intelligence.

"Why should a parcel post be established by the Government?"

Arthur Roberts gave one of several reasons which was that our nation is partial to foreign nations. A man living in any one of twenty five or thirty nations can send a package of eleven pounds or more to this country by mail and our post office department will carry it anywhere in the United States for from six to ten cents per pound, but if an American wants to send a package of same kind five or ten miles he is limited to four pounds and is required to pay sixteen cents per pound. We, as American citizens, should rise up and demand a parcel post and should have equal privileges with foreign people, he said. After a general discussion the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we, farmers of Adams County, want a parcels post established in the United States and we request that you vote for and use every reasonable effort to have measures passed to supply rural districts with this convenience similar to that which our foreign nations enjoy.

Resolved, That the secretary forward a copy of this action to each of our representatives in the senate and congress at Washington, D. C.

THE PRINCIPALS HELD SESSIONS

Adams County Public School Principals' Association Held its Annual Winter Meeting Here on Saturday. The Discussions.

The Principals' Association of Adams County held their annual midwinter meeting Saturday morning and afternoon in the new Gettysburg High School building. The sessions were marked by a large attendance and lively discussions. All of the high school principals in the county and a number of grammar school teachers were present.

Prof. L. Dale Crankleton, of Little-town, presided over the sessions as president of the association. Miss R.
Alice Longsdorf, of Biglerville, is the secretary.

Miss Anna M. Hake and Miss Lizzie
B. Rummel, both of Gettysburg, read papers on "Drawing in the Upper Grades," Miss Hake bringing special emphasis on the importance of the study and Miss Rummel outlining various methods of presenting the subject.

Miss Longsdorf, of Biglerville, and Prof. Charles A. Landis, of Fairfield, read papers on "General Literature in the Upper Grades," dealing with supplementary reading and telling their own methods of teaching the subjects.

Prof. J. Willard Bucher, of East Berlin, presented a paper on "The Promotion and Classification of Pupils." This was followed by an interesting discussion on the matter of marking. All of the papers brought out discussions of value to the teachers, the majority of them as well as County Superintendent Roth taking part in the talks which followed. A round table occupied the latter part of the meeting.

Prof. Roth took up the matter of the examination of pupils for High School work and upon his suggestion the association adopted a resolution recommending that the county course should be completed first and that only those should be examined who desire diplomas. Further, that one special day be set aside before the opening of the fall school term for examination for high school admission and that no rural pupil be admitted after the opening of the schools. The resolution was the outcome of Prof. Roth's inquiry as to the preparation received by rural pupils for High School entrance.

The sessions were of much practical value and great help to all who attended.

HOUSE ENTERED

The home of Theodore Houck, of North Stratton street was entered between three and four o'clock this morning and three hams removed from the cellar. The guilty party was traced for several blocks by Mr. Houck who followed with a lantern, but he finally lost sight of the tracks.

A peculiar feature of the larceny was the fact that ever since Mr. Houck has had the meat in his cellar he has had a dread of its being stolen and some time ago when Mrs. Houck went away he remained at the house just to guard the meat. About three o'clock this morning his daughter heard a noise downstairs and awakened her father. By the time he was prepared to go down the thief had gotten the meat and started away. Entrance had been gained through a cellar window.

With Chief Gordon Mr. Houck started out with a lantern and followed the tracks which they could discern in the snow. Constable Wilson's help was also asked. A light fall of snow finally concealed the tracks and they gave up the chase as hopeless.

Mr. Houck is a shoemaker and works for J. H. Eaker in his Baltimore street shop.

NEW AIR RECORD

Parmalee, in Wright Biplane, Remained Up Over 3 1/2 Hours.

San Francisco, Jan. 23.—Philip O. Parmalee, the Wright aviator, established a new American record for duration, and incidentally made the first record during the present meet, when he cruised the upper air currents over Selfridge field for three hours, thirty-nine minutes and forty-eight seconds before bringing down his machine to the ground.

Parmalee's feat breaks the record of three hours and seventeen minutes, made by Arch Hoxsey, of the Wright team, shortly before his death. The record will stand as official, being made in the presence of Major Ernest E. V. Smith, of the Aero Club of America.

DEATH OF MOUSE DARKENS FOUR TOWNS

Peculiar Accident in Delaware Electric Plant.

Laurel, Del., Jan. 23.—The towns of Laurel, Seaford, Bridgeville and Delaware were thrown into complete darkness for several hours by the electrocution of a mouse.

The accident was as peculiar as the result was effective. The rodent attempted to cross a generator switch in the power house of the Sussex Light and Power company, which supplies Laurel and the other three places with electricity.

The animal did not get very far. Its body formed a connection and short-circuited the entire system, causing the wires to burn out. The finding of what was left of the mouse explained the cause to the electricians who repaired the damage.

EGG HATCHES IN HEN

Lock Haven, Pa., Jan. 23.—Mrs. H. S. McCloskey, of 32 Bald Eagle street, decided to kill a chicken for her Sunday dinner.

She selected a large fat hen from the flock that had done nothing during the winter to assist the egg industry.

While in the act of dressing the fowl she was surprised to find a fully developed egg therein. In breaking the egg she was still further astounded, for the egg contained a young chicken or "peep," but it was dead.

NORTON BEING FORCED TO QUIT

Pressure Being Used to Oust President's Secretary.

FAILURE AS PEACE MAKER

It is Said Mr. Norton Is Pleasing Neither the Insurgents nor Reactionaries as a Dove of Peace.

Washington, Jan. 23.—Charles D. Norton's announced retirement as secretary to the president is regarded as indicating another political shift by the president himself, but in what direction has not been indicated.

Norton declares that he retires voluntarily on account of both his health and his business interests, which are suffering by his attention to White House work.

But until Saturday night, when the first announcement of his going was made, Norton was regarded as the chief manager of the president's campaign for re-election, and an important factor in presidential politics.

Whether Mr. Norton was proving a success from the viewpoint of the president or not, it is a fact that the course of the administration was pleasing neither progressives nor reactionaries, and for some of the causes of displeasure Norton was held responsible.

Belief That Norton Is Forced Out.

In spite of emphatic denials from those close to the president, the belief is rapidly gaining strength that Norton is forced to retire, and that those who are forcing him are the men who have convinced the president that his interests are being sacrificed to Norton's schemes of self-advancement.

Starting out with an original program to bring the progressives and the reactionaries together in support of the president, Mr. Norton has unquestionably aided in widening the division between the representatives of the public's interest and the representatives of special privilege and has apparently given to the administration so zig zag a course between the two, that at the very moment when either thought the president was headed in their direction, they discovered that he had veered about and was headed away from them.

Now while it is probably true that this erratic method of proceeding was due to the president's lack of conviction, Mr. Norton has been blamed, if for nothing else than that he did not steer the president along straighter lines.

Instead of being merely secretary to the president, Norton has striven to be a powerful factor in both legislation and politics and has had neither experience nor knowledge to aid in either.

Notwithstanding all this, it is declared that the president will lose his services with great regret. His successor has not been selected, and inasmuch as Norton will not go until congress adjourns, President Taft is not likely to make a selection a moment earlier than is necessary.

Two Spoken of For Place.

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Charles D. Hillis and Representative Tawney, of Minnesota, are both spoken of for the place.

Tawney's appointment would mean that the president had committed himself again to the control of the Can-non-Aldrich reactionary faction and would become a candidate for renomination solely as the representative of special privilege.

Inasmuch as so open a demonstration of his attitude would be very bad politics, Tawney's appointment is not considered probable.

A report was out to the effect that the place had been offered to Hillis by President Taft, but Hillis refused to discuss the reliability of the report.

DOZEN BITTEN BY MAD DOG

Victims Go to Hospital in a Body For Pasteur Treatment.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 23.—One of the largest parties ever received at the Pasteur Institute of Mercy hospital in this city arrived from Punxsutawney, Pa.

Last week a dog attacked and bit a dozen or more men. Michael Lorenzo, who had been severely bitten, was sent to the hospital and the head of the dog was sent to Harrisburg for examination. It was found the dog had rabies when killed, and the men decided to come to Pittsburg for treatment.

Illustrated Lecture Solves Problem.

Stamford, Conn., Jan. 23.—Rev. Louis E. Berry, pastor of the First Congregational church, seems to have solved the problem of attendance at the Sunday vesper church services. Mr. Berry gave in the place of the conventional exercises a lecture on the city of Rome. Illustrated pictures were shown by stereopticon. Aside from the pictures there was singing by the choir and prayer by the pastor. The attendance was large.

Plague Spreads in Pekin.

London, Jan. 23.—The Pekin correspondent of the Daily Mail says that in consequence of the spread of the bubonic plague the diplomats have been closed the legation there and the Chinese will probably close the European quarter. There have been ten deaths from the plague in Pekin since Jan. 17.

BRYAN TAKES A HAND

Would Nominate Progressive Democrat For President in 1912.

Washington, Jan. 23.—William J. Bryan, three times the unsuccessful candidate of the Democratic party for president, has again taken a hand in politics and is engaged in an effort to insure the nomination of a progressive Democrat for the presidency in 1912. At the same time it is indicated that Mr. Bryan himself will not again be a candidate for the presidential nomination.

News of Mr. Bryan's activity in party affairs was quietly imparted by his friends to Democrats who attended the Baltimore harmony conference a few days ago, and has been the subject of serious discussion in inner party circles here ever since.

The campaign against the selection of a so-called reactionary Democrat for president is being conducted in the name of Charles W. Bryan, publisher of the Commoner, and a brother of the former Democratic nominee, but it is apparent the movement really emanates from the peerless leader.

Charles W. Bryan has sent a letter to one or two close friends of his distinguished brother in each state, urging the old Bryan following and "progressive Democrats," as he calls them, to get together and prevent the nomination of a reactionary or a member of "the conservative wing of the Democratic party."

INVENTION MAKES SEA TRAVEL SAFER

Can Reverse Ship's Engines by Turn of the Wrist.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 23.—George Westinghouse has completed an invention by which it is claimed that the danger to ships at sea in fog or darkness or under most favorable conditions will be greatly minimized.

Through the invention the officer on watch can, by a simple turn of the wrist in case of emergency, reverse all engines, though running at full speed, and set them racing backwards.

The invention is designed especially for use in vessels equipped with turbine engines, as is the case almost exclusively in shipbuilding now. A small lever within easy reach of the man in charge on shipboard will be the only evidence in view of his increased power. It is estimated at the Westinghouse shops, where the invention has been completed, that it will prove a great preventive of loss of life or damage to property.

Mr. Westinghouse has now a class of graduates from the big colleges all over the world taking post-graduate courses in electrical construction, etc., at the plant of the Westinghouse Machine company. The college men are mostly at work on great turbine engines for battleships, and are said to make the best class of workmen. While at work they are paid 20 cents an hour.

ROB HERO'S GRAVE OF $500

Vandals Steal Coin Put in Tomb of Revolutionary Officer.

Winston-Salem, N. C., Jan. 23.—The well known grave of John Harrold, who served under General George Washington during the Revolutionary War, has been broken open and robbed of a large amount of money in gold and silver coins, which were hidden there by his widow more than 100 years ago.

No clue as to the robbers has as yet been found, but detectives are making every effort to apprehend the desecrators of the grave. The amount of money is supposed to have been considerably more than $500.

MAKING A PRIZE STEER.

Not only those who have seen the prize winning steers at the International, but many who read about them, will be interested in the system of feeding which is followed in getting one of these blue ribbon beefers ready for the show ring. The Iowa State college at Ames, which fed and exhibited Shamrock II., the grand champion steer of the 1910 International, has lately made public the following data in regard to this steer and the care which he received. Shamrock was calved Jan. 10, 1910, his sire being a pure bred Angus bull and his dam a high grade Angus cow. He was bought by the agricultural college the latter part of April, 1910, and on May 1, when put on forced feed, weighed 340 pounds. His weights at monthly intervals during the feeding period were: June 1, 462 pounds; July 1, 589; Aug. 1, 700; Sept. 1, 822; Oct. 1, 941; Nov. 1, 1,000; and Nov. 20, 1,130 pounds, when he was shipped to Chicago. Beginning May 1 Shamrock was put on a nurse cow, being kept in the barn during the day and allowed the run of a grass lot at night. He was fed in addition all the clover hay he would eat and a grain ration consisting of three parts corn, two parts wheat bran and one part oil meal. This ration was continued up to Sept. 1. From this time on he was given two nurse cows, fed green corn (ears and stalks), clover hay and roots, while the grain ration was changed to boiled wheat and oats. During the last twenty days of the feeding period his daily ration consisted of from nine to eleven pounds of cooked feed, twenty-five pounds of roots and five pounds of clover hay, besides the milk from two cows. The excellence of the care given him and mal is shown in the fact that he did not miss a feed from May 1 to the close of the feeding period. Shamrock II. was sold at auction at the close of the show to Chicago butchers, bringing 60 cents per pound, or $672 for his total weight of 1,120 pounds.

SAMPLE DAIRY RATIONS.

There is probably no other state agricultural college in the country that has so large a number of pure bred dairy cows of different breeds of large butter capacity as that of Missouri; hence some of the suggestions contained in bulletin No. 44, recently issued, will be received with interest by dairymen. Along the line of general rules the following are laid down: (1) Feed all the roughage the cows will eat up at all times; (2) feed one pound of grain per day for each pound of butter fat produced per week or one pound of grain per day for each three pounds of milk produced daily; (3) feed all the cows will take without gaining in weight. Clover and alfalfa should constitute a part of the roughage, if possible, but in case they are not to be had their place in the bill of fare should be substituted by oil or cottonseed meal and bran. Where possible the ration should be varied with silage and roots—turnips, carrots or beets. The bulletin recommends the following sample rations for cows giving from twenty to twenty-five pounds of milk daily: Ration 1—Corn silage, twenty-five pounds; clover hay, ten pounds; corn, four pounds; bran, four pounds. Ration 2—Corn silage, thirty pounds; alfalfa or cowpeas hay, ten pounds; corn, six pounds; bran, two pounds. Ration 3—Clover hay, twenty pounds; corn, four to five pounds; bran or oats, two to four pounds. Ration 4—Clover hay, twenty pounds; corn and cob meal, five to seven pounds; gluten or cottonseed meal, two pounds. Ration 5—Alfalfa or cowpeas hay, ten pounds; corn fodder, ten pounds; corn, five to seven pounds; bran, two pounds. Ration 6—Alfalfa or cowpeas hay, fifteen to twenty pounds; corn, eight to ten pounds.

DOUBLE MURDER IN BARNYARD

Contractor and His Son-in-Law Shot Dead.

SUSPECT UNDER ARREST

Bodies of Victims Were Riddled With Shot—One Was Shot in Back—Owner of Farm Held by Police.

Cumberland, Md., Jan. 23. — The community about Riffes Crossing, W. Va., is astounded over a murder surrounded by mystery.

The bodies of J. L. Nickel, aged fifty-two years, a carpenter and contractor, and his son-in-law, Stephen Evans, aged twenty-six years, were found, riddled with bullets, in the barnyard of W. K. Eades. The crime was committed in broad daylight and within a short distance of their own home.

Thirty-eight shot entered Evans' face and head. Both eyes were shot out and four shot entered the brain. Nickel was evidently running away from his assailant. His body was found about 200 yards from where he had been, fourteen shot entering his back. There were also eleven shot wounds on his fingers and two on his elbow. Two shot entered his neck. As far as known no one witnessed the crime, but the shots were heard.

W. K. Eades is under arrest. The evidence against him is circumstantial. J. L. Nickel formerly lived on the land where the shooting occurred and rented from Eades. About three months ago the house was burned down and Nickel and his son-in-law moved away. Nickel had a corn crop on the Eades farm, and Nickel and his son-in-law were shucking corn when shot. It appears that had blood had existed between Eades and the murdered men for some time.

MOTHER SEES CHILD BURN

Bedridden Parent Was Helpless While Little One Burned to Death.

Toledo, O., Jan. 23. — Mrs. Jesse Skinner, wife of a miner, underwent the frightful experience of seeing her little child, a few feet away, burned to death while she was wholly unable to give the slightest assistance to the agonized child.

The woman has been bedridden for the last six months. While her husband was away the little girl, five years old, played around the open grate in the room where her mother lay.

A spark from the fire ignited the child's clothing, and in an instant she was a mass of flames.

The mother screamed for help, but owing to her weakened condition was not heard. Then she made frantic but vain efforts to rise from her bed.

When the mother's cries were heard finally the child was dead and the mother was in a state of hysteria.

HAS DIVORCE BILL READY

Count de Beaufort Will Be Lenient If Rich Wife Will See Him.

Chicago, Jan. 23. — From the statement of Count Albert Jacques von Mounrik de Beaufort, that he intends to file a bill of divorce against the countess, and that it will be "the naughty one, too," Chicago society folk have arrived at conclusions.

Many persons believe that the count has three or four other bills up his sleeve and that he is trying to intimidate the countess, and intimates that if she consents to see him he will be lenient with her. The couple separated several months ago, when the count beat his wife and her father threw him from the house.

The outcome of the bill to be filed will be watched with a great deal of interest.

HONDURAS REBELS LOSE THE HORNET

American Warship Seizes the Little Filibusterer.

Washington, Jan. 23. — The Bonilla revolution in Honduras received a severe blow, according to private cable dispatched received in this city, when the Commander Archibald H. Davis, of the United States cruiser Tacoma, seized the rebel chief's principal asset, the armed vessel Hornet, in the harbor at Truxilla, put her crew ashore and manned her with Americans.

General Bonilla, the provisional president of Honduras, has been in arms against President Davila for some time, and his use of the Hornet in expeditions along the coast caused Commander Davis to take action.

Before seizing the boat he warned Bonilla of his purpose, but the latter sent back a defiant note, which precipitated an ultimatum from the American commander. The insurgent left the issue to Commander Davis, and the latter immediately took possession of the boat, placing her under the command of Lieutenant Walter Roper.

The state department has insisted throughout the Honduras uprising that American interests should not be molested. When the Hornet left New Orleans she was searched, but showed no evidence of a warlike nature.

Commander Davis had general instructions to watch the little filibustering boat after she had declared herself, and his first action in seizing her is the result of orders to use his own discretion in an emergency.

HEAVY FIGHTING IN MEXICO

Bloody Battle is Being Fought at Galeana.

300 DEAD AND WOUNDED

Courier Reports That Many Women and Children Were Killed in Their Homes, Which Were Occupied by Rebels.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 23. — Fighting continues at Galeana, south of Casas Grandes, and runners brought the news to Casas Grandes that among the dead were many women and children, killed in their homes as the federals fired on the insurgents in the houses.

Unless these couriers are greatly excited it promises to be the bloodiest battle of the present insurrection when all losses are totaled. Reports say the dead and wounded will total 300. Casas Grandes is still in the hands of the federals, but the inhabitants are not certain how long it will be held.

It is claimed now that the rebels are attempting to take all towns along the El Paso Northwestern road south of here and hold the line in order to use it to take supplies to their troops from El Paso.

As indicating that the Mexican government places credence in these reports, it sent another hundred cavalrymen to Juarez from Chihuahua. Fiscal guards in Juarez reported that 200 revolutionists crossed the Rio Grande at Guadalupe, east of El Paso, going south. This report was made to their commander.

Reports from Guerrero and Ojinaga show that the federals as in a serious condition there as at Cabeana. Navarro is completely cut off from Chihuahua, and the rebels boast that their retreat from Guerrero was to draw him further away from his base of supplies and then annihilate his command. He has been cut off for a week, and the rebels are attacking his commands in all the smaller towns around Guerrero and Temosachic, assisted in their attacks by the Tarahumara Indians.

At Ojinaga General Luque has had to send out all the troops he can spare to reinforce the small garrisons he placed in the smaller towns, and is now said to be surrounded himself by rebels at Ojinaga. The loss among the federals around Ojinaga is known to have been heavy of late. Censorship was placed on the wires of the Mexico Northwestern southwest of here to Casas Grandes.

Hard to Please.
Early in the season a man applied at a farmhouse for board, but the farmer slowly shook his head. "I'd be glad to keep you," he said, "but city people are too hard to please."
"I am not at all exacting," the applicant replied. "You will find no difficulty in pleasing me."
"That's what the last man who came along here said, but it wasn't so. Fact is nothing pleased him. First he complained about sleeping in a bed with the hired man, and when we gave him a bed to himself in a room with four of the children he was still dissatisfied."
"Then he didn't like to use the towel we all used, and he wanted a wash basin in his room. Nothing suited him at all. I don't know whether you would be so hard to please or not."
"Well," the city man said, "perhaps I'd better not chance it."

It is quite possible that the runty pig or pigs are afflicted with worms, in which case it is just a matter of time until they kick the bucket. We saw one of these runts not long since preserved in alcohol, and the sight made it possible to realize why a pig afflicted with worms gets discouraged. The intestines of the specimen in question were literally a solid mass of long stringy white worms, which not only swarmed in the organs mentioned, but had perforated the stomach, the liver and kidneys. A pig in this shape simply starves to death, saying nothing of great distress and pain it suffers while slowly dying. If pigs begin to appear scrubby, look out for worms and give them doses of some reliable vermicide. Better than this is to keep before the pigs at all times a ration of cob charcoal, salt and sulphur, which will prevent the worms from getting a foothold.

BEST PLAY OF THE SEASON

Westchester, Pa., Sept. 13, 1908.
Mgr. Opera House, Bluefield, West Virginia. My dear sir—I see by The Mirror that you play "The Forger" next week. I played them here last week and without a doubt it is the best play I have had here in a long time. I expect them back and will pack my house, and you will say the same. You have never seen anything like it. You can tell your patrons that it is the best company you will have this season. Some managers would think it strange receiving a letter like this, but I would thank any manager who would send me word when he can truly recommend any good company the way times are now. I am sending this letter as much for them as you, as Mr. Totten is a fine young man and should receive good houses. Do all you can for "The Forger" and as I say, it is one of the best. J. F. Small, Mgr. Ohio Circuit. At Walter's Theatre Tuesday, January 24. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

A GREAT MAGAZINE

The New York World is now giving with its Sunday issue a great literary magazine. It is unequalled in America. Also every week the words and music of a new song. Next Sunday's song is "My Pretty Black Eyed Susan," by "Honey Boy" Evans, of minstrel fame. Music by arrangement with Shapiro, the publisher.

He Was Scared.

There used to be a sheriff in a Green Mountain county of Vermont who for forty years had driven his prisoners—murderers, moonshiners and thieves—through the woods in his buggy to the county jail and yet who had never carried a revolver nor used a pair of handcuffs in his life. He had a strong hand, a brave heart and a stutter. "Weren't you ever afraid?" some one asked him one day.
"Well, I 'low once I w-wuz t-t-t-rable well skeert," he admitted slowly. "I h-heard S-S-S-P-Perkins, the b-barber, w-wuz g-gone d-d-d-aft an' w-wuz c-carvin' p-people up, an' I c-c-calc'lated it w-wuz my official d-d-dooty to g-go an' arrest him. So I w-went d-d-down to S-S-S's shop an' w-went in, an' S-S-S c-c-came at me w-with a r-razor in each h-hand. An' then I 'low I w-wuz t-t-t-rable well skeert."
"What did you do?"
"W-w-well," said the old sheriff, spitting thoughtfully into the sand box beside the stove, "I w-wuz s-s-s-s-s-skeert that I t-t-took 'em a-away from him."—Everybody's.

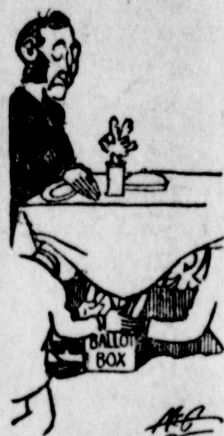

THE MAN OF THE HOUR

"The Man of the Hour," George Broadhurst's great American play, is underlined as the attraction coming to the Walter Theatre, Friday, January 27. The play is a charming picture-story of American life, giving us a glimpse of the highest phases of life in the big cities. It tells an interesting story, filled with incidents that hold the audience in breathless suspense. Too much praise cannot be given the men and women in the cast which includes Joseph Harris, Chas. H. Ellwood, Harry J. Oehler, L. C. Phillips, Charles Drake, Edward Riley, Fred Renolds, Walter Carter, Richard Hogan, John P. Daly, M. J. Underwood, Frank Weston, Peter Digman, Georgie Brantley, Edna Lyman, Marie Camere and other. Prices 50, 75, $1.00 and $1.50.

Scrap Book

An Honest Deal.

In one of our states not many years ago it was a sport and a science in some sections to stuff the ballot boxes so that no matter how the people voted the machine candidates won. In one little town an enthusiast for honest government was named as one of the board of three election judges. His two companions were ready to slip into the ballot box enough votes to elect their man, but they could not get the honest judge to leave the voting booth long enough for them to turn the trick. Finally, after he had refused to leave long enough for lunch, all three went to a neighboring hotel for a hasty meal.

STUFFED THE BOX.

on the floor between his feet and, shutting his eyes, bowed his head for several minutes while he asked the blessing on the meal.

While he was doing this the other two stuffed the box, and the machine candidates had a staggering majority. And to this day the honest judge advertises the fact that for once he made the election judges give the people of his town an honest deal.—St. Louis Republic.

For the dairyman a pretty good New Year's resolution is the determination to weed out all cows that do not pay for their keep and to pull no teats whose yield of milk does not make the operation a paying one.

will continue until the close of January 25th. We begin taking stock in that department on the next day.

The argument is--the lower the stock, and the more cash the department can show at the close of the year, the healthier the conditions.

Of course we could not do business without profit all the year-but we can make it pay to have these Clearance Sales at a loss of profit several times a year, thus being able to stock up in NEW FRESH Goods that will sell at a profit.

As our stock is a very large one--there are still Rich Pickings of the lines advertised earlier in the week
